Call for Papers

Be among the first presenters at the 1st annual Gulf Coast Augmentative Communication Conference in Bay St. Louis, Mississippi September 30 & October 1, 2008. The conference is designed to provide clinician/teacher oriented augmentative communication strategies and techniques for individuals with complex communication needs.

Deadline for submission is May 15, 2008.

Please submit the following:

Presenter information:
Name
Institution/ Facility/Employer
Address
Phone/fax/email
Special assistance needs
Biographical sketch (50 word bio sketch for each presenter) The biographical sketch should detail the author’s qualifications for presenting on a topic.

Title of presentation (not to exceed 10 words)
Abstract of proposal (not to exceed 100 words)
Summary of presentation (not to exceed 1000 words)
Instructional level (introductory, intermediate, advanced)
Target audience (SLP, teachers, family)
Learning objectives (3-4 measurable learner objectives)

Email information to: Janie Cirlot-New @ jcirlotnew@tkmartin.msstate.edu
Or
Mail to: Janie Cirlot-New
T.K. Martin Center for Technology and Disability
P.O. Box 9736
Mississippi State, MS 39762