Happy New Year!
We hope everyone had a great holiday break and is already enjoying their 2007! We certainly enjoyed our break and are very excited about our Spring semester. We have some very fun units and projects planned, so stay tuned for upcoming events!

Who had a BLAST at the Christmas Party?
We want to send out a special thanks to everyone who participated in our Christmas program and party. The children did a TERRIFIC job with their songs, and the powerpoint of the “Twelve Days of Christmas” was a lot of fun to watch. Thanks to everyone who helped with the program, and a special thanks to the parents for participating.

Don’t Forget:
Class officially begins at 8:00 every morning. When your child is dropped off late, he/she will be missing out on fun learning activities. So please make an effort to have your child at school on time.

Special Dates to Remember:
Monday, January 15th
Martin Luther King Holiday - No school

January Thematic Units
- Dinosaurs
- Weather
- Clothing
- Transportation

The brown paper bags that your child brings home can be sent back to school and we will use them again!

Our New Occupational Therapy Student
Project IMPACT has a new occupational therapy student this semester working with Ms. Jill. Christy Jordan is a student from the University of Mississippi in Jackson and will be with us through March. Welcome Christy!

If you would like to see a color copy of our newsletter, they are always available on the T. K. Martin Center website: www.tkmartin.msstate.edu. On the home page, select Projects, and then click on the Project IMPACT link.
Check Out Our Christmas Pictures!

Anna and Emma enjoy their snack.

The children are ready to sing!

Ty and his dad check out the Christmas present Ty made.

Hayes wants “more juice” please!

Phoenix takes his mom the special gift he made for her.

Jermia gives Santa a BIG hug!

Phillip enjoys some tasty treats.

Jack says, “Santa, I’ve been a very good boy this year!”

Vicki is all smiles for Santa!